

Video Reflection Questions

---

Text-Dependent Analysis in Action Video: Martin Luther King "Letter from Birmingham Jail"

How is this reading instruction different from my own past/present practice?

In what specific ways will students benefit from this type of close reading?

What would an educator require to be able to conduct a conversation such as this with students?
(e.g., tools, resources, supports, preparation)