

RI EARLY LEARNING & DEVELOPMENT STANDARDS

Dear Early Learning Community,

The Rhode Island Department of Education (RIDE) encourages every early childhood educator to use The Early Learning and Development Standards to guide the development of their classroom level curriculum. To support this goal, one copy of the Standards was mailed to every early childhood program in the state. In addition, RIDE has created several options for obtaining additional copies of the Standards materials. First, all Standards materials are available online by visiting www.rields.com. Electronic copies can be downloaded and viewed on all devices from the “Resources” section of the website, found at the top right of the website. For those interested in obtaining additional hard copies, arrangements have been made with two vendors, Staples and Minuteman Press, for reduced price copying, as well as easy ordering. The costs for these materials are not paid for by RIDE. However, programs are encouraged to use program improvement grant funds (<http://center-el.org/quality-improvement-grants/>) to purchase additional copies. Additional information on these agreements can be found below.

The Standards materials, including the Standards document, Poster, Fun Family Activity Cards and Parent Guide, are available for ordering. The cost for the materials are as follows:

- Standards (Spiral Bound) $27.98
- Poster (26x40) $16
- Fun Family Activity Cards $12.15
- Parent Guide- with color bleed $1.68 per brochure and without color bleed $.99

Pre ordering of materials can be done by contacting Joseph Stockerberger at 508-215-9951 or at joseph.stockberger@staples.com . When contacting Joseph Stockberger please reference REWARDS #3480006299. Joseph can pre-print and have available, either for pick-up or free mailing, any quantity of materials requested.

Additionally, materials may be copied from any Staples store by bringing in a hardcopy, or flash drive with a copy. The document may also be e-mailed by contacting the Staples print and copy center of your choice. When placing the order please be sure to use the REWARDS #3480006299 which will apply a 20% discount to your order for copies as well as supplies.

Minuteman Press is developing a website where online orders can be made. Please stay tuned for additional information or visit <http://www.providence.minutemanpress.com/> for updates.
