

Native Language Versions of State Assessments

Rhode Island does not currently administer native language versions of state assessments. We do not plan to develop native language versions of state assessments in the near future.