Q2: Comment:

For over twenty years, the RI State Comp Plan's recommended goal of 10% low or affordable housing be established by every community. Per capita, Newport has over 17%, while neighboring communities have less than 5% and in some cases less than 2%. Some families present extraordinary demands on our educational budget. There are no consequences for not complying, therefore the burden is borne by urban communities who have complied. This needs to be considered in the formula..

Secondly a discussion of a State Teacher's contract should be considered for consistency of salaries/ benefits, and curriculum to develop a more efficient and productive outcome for our educational system across the State.
