

2019

Short-Term Job Opportunity

With the National Assessment of Educational Progress

What is NAEP?

The National Assessment of Educational Progress, also known as The Nation's Report Card, is the only nationally representative and ongoing assessment of what our nation's students know and can do. Sponsored by the U.S. Department of Education, NAEP has been conducted since 1969 and is nationally recognized as the "gold standard" of elementary and secondary student assessments.

Required qualifications

- High school diploma or GED
- Available for required online and in-person training
- Available to work during school hours, when work is available, between the end of January and early March 2019
- Willing to complete background check requirements, including an FBI fingerprint check
- Access to broadband Internet connection and personal, private email account
- Valid driver's license, not currently under suspension, and regular access to an insured reliable vehicle to travel to and from assigned schools
- Willing and able to lift and carry up to 50 pounds, with or without reasonable accommodation

Tell me more about this opportunity!

NAEP is conducted between the last week in January and the first week in March every other (odd) year, employing thousands of staff. NAEP has short-term opportunities at various positions to work on this important study of U.S. education. Job assignments begin in late 2018 and last until March 2019.

Responsibilities include

- Administering assessment sessions using tablets in schools for a group of approximately 25 students, and
- Ensuring quality control by following proper procedures.

Westat offers

- Paid training,
- Paid time and mileage reimbursement for local driving from home to schools and back,
- Weekly paychecks (with direct deposit), and
- Opportunities for advancement based on performance.

How do I find out more about this opportunity?

Visit www.WorkNAEP.com and provide your name and email. You will be contacted via email when the application is available with instructions on how to apply.

Candidates should

- Enjoy working in schools
- Be detail oriented
- Be able to work in a team environment
- Have good communication skills and be comfortable working with technology

Prior education or research experience is a plus. Ideal for retired educators.

Westat, a nationally recognized research firm responsible for conducting NAEP since 1985, is an Equal Opportunity Employer.

For more information about Westat, visit www.westat.com